

What has happened to me... [Philippians 1v12-14]

Why does Paul claim that his message of the grace of God has actually advanced because of his suffering?

Why does Paul insist that the Jesus message thrives in adversity?

How do [2 Corinthians 4v7-12] and [2 Corinthians 6v4-10] help explain Paul's perspective on suffering?

How does the historical setting of the Roman Empire affect the way you read and understand this letter?

Why would saying "Jesus is Lord" get you put in prison in Paul's day?

Some scholars see a connection between today's passage in Philippians and Genesis 50v20. Do you?
